County Truck Aids in Marin

Fire Monday destroyed a dairy barn on the D. C. Jackling estate, La Honda and Kings Mountain Rd., and for a time endangered thousands of turkeys in nearby pens.

Fire Chief John Volpiano, of the Woodside Fire Department, who received the alarm at 3:20 a.m. from dairymen who were about to start milking the large herd, said the blaze had secured such headway his men were able only to rescue the cattle and other stock and prevent the blaze spreading to neighboring buildings and fields.

Origin of the blaze was not immediately determined. First alarm came when dairymen were at breakfast, preparatory to starting the morning chores. Quick action saved the cattle. Several thousand turkeys penned nearby were freed, as well as several litters of pigs.

Volpiano would not estimate the money loss involved. He pointed out about 70 tons of hay had been lost as well as a large quantity of turkey feed, dairy equipment, and other machinery.

More than 60 fire fighters battled a 40-acre brush and grass fire west of Skyline Blvd., a half mile north of Alpine Rd. Monday morning, and on into the afternoon. Proof that this fire and two other similar blazes on Skyline were set in possession of the Woodside fire chief.

Meanwhile, on Alpine Rd., two miles west of Skyline Blvd., ranchers and County Forest Service firemen fought an early morning blaze.

You'll SEE a BIG Difference
when you put in a Bright, New Lamp Bulb

Have you checked over the lamp bulbs in your home this year? It pays to do it because lamp bulbs "dim-out" with age and use. For example, check your favorite floor lamp with the three-way globe. Perhaps only one filament is now working and that is why the light it is giving out is not very bright. Or your kitchen light has begun to darken. Or your bulbs are missing in other lamps and fixtures. Make a list of the lamps to buy and are in new bulbs. They are cheap to buy and are plentiful supply. Good lighting is inexpensive. Use Better Light to make your home more cheerful as well as more comforting to your eyes.

Clean all lamp bulbs with a damp cloth and then polish dry them.

Wash the lamp bowls in today water, or you would fine china.

Give your lamp shades thorough dusting. It pays.

Belmont police and local California Highway Patrol officers searched for trace of the hit-run motorist who early Sunday morning struck and killed Joseph J. Magee, 52, employee at the San Mateo County Relief Home, as Magee apparently walked along Ralston Rd., four miles west of Belmont.

Police Chief Fred Johnson was notified by passing motorists about 1 a.m. Sunday that a man's body was lying on the highway. Johnson advised CHP Capt. E. F. Cassell. McGee was pronounced dead on arrival at Community Hospital.

Jeanne Glabey, 18, 1070 Grant Ave., South San Francisco, was treated at Palo Alto Hospital Sunday night for minor injuries suffered in a crash on Bayshore Hwy. near Ochoa, 18, 738 Baden Ave., South San Francisco, crashed into an embankment and overturned on Skyline Blvd. a mile south of Alpine Rd. Ochoa told CHP officers he swerved to avoid some deer crossing the highway, but struck one animal and careened into the embankment.

John Winhill of Sharp Park was treated for minor lacerations at Community Hospital Sunday afternoon after his car went out of control and crashed into the embankment on Coast Hwy. near Sneath Rd.

Frank LaTorres, 70, 823 Balboa, San Francisco, and his wife, Margaret, 56, both suffered severe injuries Saturday afternoon when the car driven by LaTorres collided with one driven by William C. Brown, 65, 3365 Clay St., San Francisco, at Bayshore Hwy. and Willow Rd., East Palo Alto.

C. R. Chisom, 17, 55 Vera Ave., Redwood City, suffered minor injuries Saturday night when his motorcycle collided with a car driven by Joseph E. Nichols, 47, 770 Dolores, San Francisco, on Woodside and Valota Rds. Officer R. F. West of Redwood City police investigated.

Two motorists escaped injury yesterday when their cars collided at El Camino Real and Rogers St. here. Drivers were Harry B. Lake, 57, 20 Hernandez Ave., San Francisco, and John Cardinale, 17, 1350 18th St., San Francisco.

Angela Giannini, 33, 408 Utah St., San Francisco, suffered head and leg injuries Sunday evening when the car in which she was riding crashed into an auto ahead on Bayshore Hwy. near San Carlos. John Kastores, 5851 Potrero, San Francisco, driver of the machine, was uninjured. Miss Giannini was treated at South San Francisco Hospital.

Mrs. Gina Bartoli, 31, and her son, Carlo, 8, were injured painfully but not seriously Sunday evening on Bayshore Hwy. near Fifth Ave., Redwood City, when the car driven by Henry Bartoli, 32, 85 Moltke St., Daly City, collided with a car driven by Delmar Valasco, 31, 1430 Schraeder St., San Francisco. The injured were treated at Mills Hospital.

Four Burlingame girls and a San Mateo man were among seven persons injured Sunday night when an automobile driven by a U. S. Maritime Service engineer crashed into the bench on which they were sitting in San Bruno, waiting for a Greyhound bus.

Victor E. Montalvo, 23, of San Francisco, merchant marine engineer, is being held by San Bruno police in lieu of $500 cash bail, charged with reckless driving, and driving with faulty car equipment and faulty brakes.

"Wild Dog" Reported
Menacing Residents

Supervisors Plan
3-County Highway
Meet October 18

Organization of a new three-county joint highway district to complete extension of Junipero Serra Hwy. from its present Burlingame terminus into San Jose will be sought at a special meeting in San Mateo Thursday, Oct. 18, at 7 p.m.

County Clerk W. H. Augustus has invited San Francisco and Santa Clara County supervisors, their planning commission heads and legal advisors, to meet with San Mateo County board members at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel in San Mateo to consider formation of the new district.

Augustus' invitation was made at request of local supervisors in Tuesday's afternoon session after Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey of South San Francisco pointed out that Joint Highway District 10 is ending its activities with extension of Junipero Serra Hwy. to Mills Lane, North Burlingame.

At present, Hickey pointed out there is no official body able to handle the highway extension except the state highway commission. Necessity of a special highway district, as was formed by San Francisco and San Mateo counties for the previous work on Junipero Serra, was stressed by Hickey. The state, he said, has decided to undertake no further action until it learns the wishes of residents of the three counties involved.

Need for immediate action, Hickey said, is seen in the fact that more than 100 structures have already been built on the probable right-of-way, which must be bought or condemned if the state survey route southward is followed. Municipalities involved have been unanimous in disapproval of the state survey, indicating preference for the suggested freeway beyond the residential districts of Peninsula cities and towns.

Highway District 10 officials, Hickey declared again at yesterday's session, while they can take no official action, are more than

Hog Ranchers
Apply
For Permits

Forty-two Colma hog ranchers, acting through Atty. Joseph J. Bullock has filed applications for business permits with the board of supervisors in a move to counter current criminal charges of operating without proper county licenses.

Bullock, who represents the 42 ranchers in action which is slated for trial in Judge R. A. Rappey's justice court Oct. 10, told the supervisors Tuesday that his clients had deposited approximately $6000 with the county license collector for the $250 yearly fee required of each ranch.

The money, he said, is in addition to another $6000 on deposit with the license collector for 1944-45 licenses which were never issued because the department of health would not issue a certificate of sanitation to the ranches.

The applications, which were accepted for record by the supervisors, were immediately referred to the planning commission which is empowered to conduct a public hearing on the matter.

With the planning commission report, the applications will then be referred to the board of health, according to provisions of a county ordinance which went into effect July 1, 1944.

Health department officials, who have repeatedly refused to approve the applications because of insanitary conditions, today reported an inspection of the ranches as late as last Friday "showed no improvement."

Attorney Bullock, asked this morning if the ranches had been "cleaned up," told reporters "there was never any doubt about it."

Criminal action against the ranches was instigated last July by the San Mateo County district attorney in complaints charging the ranchers with operating during

'Jeep' Can't Stay Away From Trouble

"Jeep" Auld, the 2-year-old who fell down the well on a neighbor's place last June, is at it again.

This time he piled blocks up to reach through the garage window and stick his hand in the wringer of his mother's washing machine. Skin was chewed off and the wrist twisted but no grafts will be necessary, his mother, Mrs. George Auld, of 424 Upton St., said today.

"Jeep," who is George Jr., son of Navy Lt. George Auld, attracted a large crowd June 20 when he fell feet first down the well, had oxygen pumped down, while neighbors, doctors and firemen stood by, and neighbors relayed as a digging team. After two hours "Jeep," none the worse for wear, was rescued.

Mechanic Files Suit
For $21,524 Damages

Joseph L. Rose, construction mechanic, Monday had filed a $21,524 damage suit against Clarence A. Magistrelli for injuries allegedly suffered during blasting at a South San Francisco quarry on Mar. 9, 1945.

The complaint, which declares Rose suffered permanent injuries to his eye when an explosion showered dirt and rocks upon him, asserts Magistrelli and other John Doe defendants were in the the 1944-45 fiscal year without licenses. The ranchers, if convicted, would face the equivalent of abatement proceedings through the action which could be prosecuted for each day of operation without the licenses. Dep. Dist. Atty. Fred Wyckoff explained.

Council Will Act on Manager Job, Dancing Schools in Residences

Playing the inaction of the city council, an irate group of Redwood City parents Monday night succeeded in forcing the councilmen to agree upon the necessity of revising City Ordinance 460 which prohibits dancing or nursery schools in first class residential areas.

The group, which appeared in behalf of the Mildred Buhler Dancing School at 180 Elwood St., heatedly contested the council's final action to continue the dancing school along with other property which is being abated.

Packing the council chambers, parents of children attending the school vigorously applauded Councilman Harold F. Anderson who, after hearing the arguments, moved that steps be taken to revise the city ordinance.

One woman rose from her seat in the audience and demanded to know what was holding up the ordinance revision.

It was at this point that Anderson moved that the law be changed to conform with the times. Councilman Evans A. Fletcher seconded the motion and it was agreed to discuss the ordinance amendment at the Oct. 15 meeting.

Councilman Carl Britschgi opened the discussion last night after Mayor W. W. Hilton asked the status of abatement proceedings against the Rice, Hollenbaugh, Banta, Buhler, Roberts and Eckler properties.

"The war is over but war conditions are not," Britschgi said. "I move that these abatement proceedings be extended to the first council meeting in January to let things loosen up a bit."

Some of these properties are boarding houses and people just can't find new places to live. I can't see that housing conditions have changed since the war."

Councilman Fletcher seconded Britschgi's motion with the remark, "You just try to find a place to live in Redwood City. Boy, oh boy!" Councilman Floyd D. Granger also favored the waiting period to continue abatement proceedings.

At this point, Councilman C. C. Armstrong incurred the wrath of the audience by stating bluntly, "I can't understand the frame of mind of this council; which one minute votes to scrap civilian defense equipment thereby indicating that the war is over and then in the next minute says that the war is not over by permitting abatement proceedings to continue when we agreed previously that when the war was over the abatements would be brought up for action."

"We seem to expect some people to live up to the laws and not others. We never before have these abated property owners until six months after the war and they've been granted no permit!" Armstrong flashed.

Councilman Anderson replied that the federal government has condoned many things until six months after the war.

Why bother with all this now, give them six months? Councilman George McNulty stated and his remarks were echoed by Mayor W. W. Hilton.

"On what legal basis?" Armstrong flared.

"These abated citizens must know what to expect. They can wait until January and then win another suspended sentence," Hilton said.

At this point, a woman who lives next door to J. A. Banta, upholsterer whose property is being abated because he is conducting a business in a residential area, told the council that should be offered hammering and cars driving in and out was a nuisance to her. Councilmen were then presented with a petition signed by all of Banta's neighbors except this one woman claiming that he was not a nuisance.

"Businessmen are really not so bright. All you have to do is take your business out to a residential area and you won't have to pay a license fee," Armstrong flashed after a report that none of these abated property owners were paying city license fees.

A Redwood City father then opened the argument in favor of Mrs. Buhler's dancing studio by describing it as a means of cultural expression for children and stating that only one person ever complained of any noise emanating from the home.

Several other mothers then took the floor and explained how quiet and orderly the children were and that dancing was at least one form of culture that should be offered Redwood City children. Mrs. Buhler told the council of her unselfish desire to present classes for the refinement and education of children here.

Dancing, it was pointed out, is a profession, and the city ordinance would even prohibit an author writing a book in his own backyard for publication.

C. E. Sabin To Leave Church Here

The Rev. C. Eugene Sabin, for three years pastor of the First Christian Church in Redwood City, submitted his resignation to the congregation last Sunday. He will leave Redwood City on Oct. 28 to become pastor of the Marysville Christian Church.

The local minister and Mrs. Sabin came to Redwood City on Sept. 12, 1942, from North Plains Christian Church in Oregon. The Christian Church of Redwood City, at that time a missionary church, has become self supporting during the past three years. Church services are held at the Redwood City Woman's Club, but lots for a church building have been purchased and a building fund inaugurated. The membership has been doubled during the Rev. Mr. Sabin's ministry in this city.

Mayor W. W. Hilton Monday asked city councilmen to decide in the near future upon a city manager and after verbal dickering for several minutes, the council agreed to hold a preliminary meeting Tuesday and another session, possibly next Monday night, to discuss the city managership which has been vacated since Aug. 6 when Robert W. Mead resigned.

To Remember Veterans At Christmas

Representatives of nearly every organization in San Mateo County, together with a number of public spirited citizens, have signified intention of sending a countywide message in San Mateo City Hall Friday evening, Oct. 12, for the purpose of creating a permanent organization whose objective will be remembering at Christmas, service men and women in veterans hospitals.

The idea is a suggestion from the 26th district of the American Legion. It is to be an all-citizen movement composed of and operated by San Mateo County citizens. The plan is patterned after a similar one that has been successfully operated for more than 20 years in a near-by county.

At the countywide meeting a proposal will be made to create a San Mateo County Veterans Hospitals' Christmas Committee, a non-profit, non-sectarian, non-political and non-commercial body incorporated under the laws of California. There will be no paid employees either directly or indirectly. All activities will be conducted by volunteer effort.

Purpose of the organization is to remember at Christmas nearly 5000 veterans now in the three San Mateo County hospitals.

Goal of the plan is to have every room and every ward decorated with garlands, wreaths, berries and Christmas ornaments. It is also planned to have an individual gift wrapped as a Christmas present.

Committee plans for a special Christmas show in the recreation halls before Christmas; special music on Christmas Day and a special Yuletide brought to bed-ridden patients.

Leaders in the plan believe that it affords a chance to do just a little for those who did so much.

Sheriff's Deputies Seek Missing Boy

Sheriff James J. McGrath's deputies Wednesday sought Howard Green, 15, of 270 Mariposa St., Brisbane, missing since Sept. 19.

H. K. Twing Returns As Civilian

In the army air forces since April 11, 1942, S. Sgt. Harold K. Twing of Redwood City this week received an honorable discharge from the service at Lowry Field, Colo.

Twing, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Twing of 1138 Madison Ave., returned from England on April 1, 1944. While stationed overseas 11 months, he received the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters and was cited for heroism in aiding three critically wounded comrades while flying over Europe.

The sergeant returned to the United States because of wounds received in combat and was hospitalized in Santa Monica, Calif. He then served as an instructor at Lincoln, Neb. His wife and son, Kenneth, joined him there.

Twing attended Sequoia High School as did his two brothers, Alfred and John. He has three sisters, Harriet Twing, Mrs. Harold E. Evans and Mrs. A. J. Carmen.

Atherton Man Hangs Himself

Apparently despondent over ill health, Evan Kamenhoff, 58, gardener for 10 years on the Atherton estate of Mrs. Leslie Miller Moore, 220 Atherton Ave., hanged himself Tuesday morning from a tree near the estate garage.

The body was found by L. O. Zedler, friend of Kamenhoff, who had lived at 362 Ave. Ave. Menlo Park, shortly before noon. Police Chief John Farrell of Atherton said investigation showed Kamenhoff had several times threatened suicide recently. Search for him was made when Zedler reported Kamenhoff had failed to return to his home at 10 o'clock this morning as expected.

Dep. Coroner Lewis Franklin said an inquest would be held, probably tomorrow. Chief Farrell said Kamenhoff had lived with his friend Zedler for the last few years. No one has been living at the Moore estate for the last few weeks.

County Tax Rate Highest in Years

San Mateo County's tax rate for general purposes for 1945-46 is $13.561, up 20.76 cents from the $11.185 rate for 1944-45 and up 28.5 cents from the 1940-41 prewar rate of $10.711 per $100 of assessed value, the California Taxpayers' Assn. reported Monday, making public its analysis of trends for county tax rates for general county purposes during the war years.

San Mateo County is one of 12 California counties whose tax rate for general county purposes for 1945-46 is at a high for the six-year period 1940-41 to 1945-46.

For 1941-42, the county tax rate was $12.234 per $100 of valuation. For 1942-43, it was $10.664 and for 1943-44, $10.7.

delinquent lots by opening bids received and selling them to the first bidder who meets the minimum sales price.

Reluctantly dropped the move to have the state accept support of Union Cemetery following City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy's reading of a report from the attorney general and subsequent discussion of the difficulties involved in ever getting the legislature to vote for the acceptance.

7. Moved that the Redwood Diner, operated by Mrs. Neil Floyd of 727 El Camino Real, be abated with other buildings at the first council meeting in January despite vehement protests from Mrs. Floyd that she was being "discriminated against." Fire Chief Mark E. Ryan reported that the Diner was a fire hazard.

8. Heard protests from Redwood City mothers who have children at John Gill School that stop signs should be placed on Jefferson Ave. near the school and at Myrtle St. and Avenue Del Ora because of the danger of children getting injured by passing motorists who travel on Jefferson at an excessive rate of speed.

Councilmen moved that this and a request that boards be placed over storm drains at the end of Myrtle St. be referred to the traffic safety committee which meets tonight at the city hall.

9. Asked Fire Chief Ryan for a report on the cost of changing installation of electric lights on El Camino Real below the Nipa Hut to the city limits.

10. Referred to the city attorney a request from five owners of property in the uninhabited subdivision known as Eaton Ave. Villa for annexation to the City of Redwood City.

11. Listened to a request from property owners on Stanley St. between Hopkins and Brewster Aves. that setback lines go back four feet and then referred the request to the planning commission.

12. Granted a permit to William C. Gormley of 452 Grand St. to operate a taxi service here. Gormley stated that he had operated a taxi business in San Francisco for 25 years.

Longest Harvest Given by These Freeze-proof Crops

Two vegetables which can be left in the garden soil all winter and harvested whenever a thaw comes in fine condition to eat, are: parsnips and salsify.

They freeze, like other plants; but for some reason freezing does not injure them. Parsnips, indeed, are definitely improved in flavor and tenderness by freezing.

Both these are long season vegetables, taking four months to mature and should be sown in the spring, in well fed soil. At least four pounds of well balanced plant food should be used to each hundred square feet in which they grow, and they should be thinned out in the row, to six inches for parsnips, four for salsify.

Salsify is the vegetable oyster which gets its name because when cooked its flavor resembles that of the oyster. The roots are long and slender and seldom more than an inch in thickness. They are at their best after having been frozen.

One of the reasons that has caused this vegetable to lack popularity is its unattractive and discolored appearance when cooked. This is due to the fact that it secretes a milky juice which turns black when exposed to the air. It should be cleaned and scraped in water which has been acidulated by the addition of vinegar. This will do away with the discolored appearance.

It is cooked by dipping it in batter and frying it in deep fat or by boiling and creaming it. In either style it is a very tasty vegetable. Kale is a third vegetable which is improved by freezing, and can usually be harvested until Christmas. It bears thick, fringed leaves resembling broccoli in flavor.

Parsnips, Kale and Salsify Are Three Vegetables That Can Be Gathered During Winter Months. Freezing Improves Their Flavor.

Planners Oppose Hwy. District

BURLINGAME—Tuesday night's meeting of the city planning commissions in San Mateo, representatives of nine San Mateo County cities, took a first step toward forming a board to co-ordinate the activities of city planning commissions in the county, in addition to voting opposition to formation of a three-county highway district for Junipero Serra.

Fred H. Drake, chairman of the San Carlos Planning Commission, told the group that "county taxpayers already have paid for highway districts 1, 9 and 10—we think that enough."

Drake declared that extension of Junipero Serra as a freeway is vital to San Mateo County but that the state should pay for it.

The San Carlos Planning Commission chairman reaffirmed support of the Klassen-James alternate route for Junipero Serra and opposition to the state-mapped route.

The meeting appointed a three-man committee to investigate the possibility of forming a board which would co-ordinate the activities of city planning commissions all over the county.

Named to the committee were James H. Mitchell, chairman of the Burlingame Planning Commission, City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy of Redwood City and Justice of the Peace Rudolph A. Rapsey, of San Bruno.

Drake was named general chairman in charge of the project. The three-man committee will report to him.

Drake announced that he hopes to arrange a joint meeting next month of the board of supervisors, the county planning commissions, and the city planning commissions to discuss common problems.

Free Press Is the Torch of World Peace, Assemblyman Call Tells Exchange Club

Assemblyman Harrison W. Call, addressing the Redwood City Exchange Club Tuesday as the feature of its observance of Newspaper Week, declared that a free press is the torch of world peace because an informed people will demand peace.

"When you have an informed people, you have a free people, and an informed and free people will stay that way," he said.

"The San Francisco (United Nations) conference was the most freely reported meeting of its kind in world history," he pointed out. "There is no conflict about what happened there. Even our austere United States Senate, which is so jealous of its prerogatives, ratified the charter in a hurry. It knew the public was informed and was demanding it.

"But what happened at the Potsdam conference? Do you know anything about what went on there? The result is confusion, misunderstanding and conflict—not armed conflict, but conflict of interest."

Call said in his opinion much of the censorship in World War II was unjustified. He cited the Doolittle flight, after which the families of the fliers were advised by high authority that all the planes had landed safely, when as a matter of fact only two landed safely.

"In the next war—if there ever is one—I hope our people will have the information as soon as the facts occur," the Redwood City assemblyman declared.

Call concluded with the statement that it is not liberty that enlightens the world, but an enlightened world which creates liberty.

A free press is one of the chief vehicles of enlightenment," he said. An orchestra and vocalist from Roxy's Club, 2907 El Camino Real, have been promised for the dinner.

Butler said, and Mrs. Mae Campbell will sing several blues selections.

The dinner, to be held at Forester's Hall at 6:30 p.m., is open to the public. Tickets may be obtained at the chamber of commerce office in the city hall for $2.15 per plate.

Ian L. Hutcheon In Appointed Associate 'Y' Secretary Here

Ian L. Hutcheon, recently released naval pilot, has been appointed associate secretary of the Peninsula Branch of the San Francisco Young Men's Christian Assn., with headquarters in Redwood City. He replaces Lloyd Coldwell, who resigned from the position to become associate secretary of the YMCA Park-Residio Branch in San Francisco.

Hutcheon, who was active in the Stockton 'Y' for six years, flew 30 missions in the Pacific and was released with the rank of lieutenant (jg). Overseas 19 months, he saw action in the Ellice Islands, New Guinea, Philippine and Admiralty Islands.

He holds the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, Presidential Unit Citation with Bronze Star, the American Theater ribbon, the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with three battle stars and the Philippine Liberation ribbon with two battle stars.

Hutcheon was based on an aircraft tender in the Pacific but also flew from land. He piloted a PBX Catalina or "Black Cat."

They both were graduated from College of the Pacific in Stockton, where the aviator majored in sociology. He was graduated from Stockton High School and then C.O.P. in 1942.

While doing Stockton YMCA work, Hutcheon supervised the building program for three summers with full responsibility for the boys' department, was a camp counselor, supervised neighborhood club activities and taught physical education including beginning swimming.

Book Drive For Russia Opens Here

To help restock the devastated libraries of the Soviet Union, a "Book for Russia" drive opened in this community with Supt. A. C. Argo of Sequoia High School, and the Rev. Egbert B. Clark, minister of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, as the local sponsors.

Dr. Donald B. Tressider, president of Stanford University, and Dr. Robert Gordon Sprout, president of the University of California, are co-chairmen of the Northern California committee supporting the drive.

Need for the drive is a direct result of bigoted Nazi destruction during the recent invasion of the Russian homeland. It is calculated that at least 23,000,000 volumes were stolen or destroyed by the Germans. Primarily books of permanent value, generally described as classics, are desired for "Books for Russia" as are scientific works and technical books published since 1926.

A special program in connection with the campaign will be conducted at Sequoia in the near future by Dr. Harry E. Reynolds, chairman of the Palo Alto committee. The Redwood City depot for the books has been established at the city library here. It is open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Sunday.

J. A. Banta Comes To His Defense

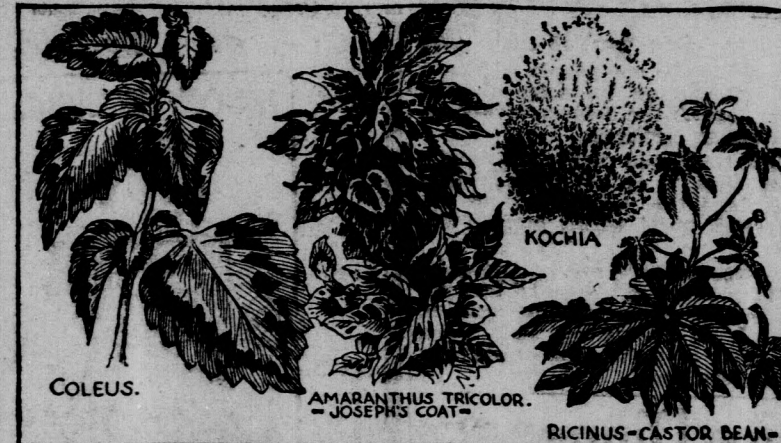

J. A. Banta, 527 Middlefield Rd., Redwood City, who was subject to attack by a neighbor at Monday night's city council meeting for conducting a business in a residential district, came to his defense Wednesday.

Banta, who is 77 years old, said he came to Redwood City 14 months ago and could find no buildings to rent. He said he then applied for a license to operate his business at his home and was told one could not be granted to him. He said he was told, however, he could carry on his business without the permit.

Councilman C. C. Armstrong reported at Monday night's meeting that "all you have to do is to take your business out to a residential area and you won't have to pay a license fee."

"I am not a crook," Banta said today. "I always try to do right." Banta declared he was willing to pay the license fee.

Backgrounds and Hedges You Can Grow from Seed

Great interest in ornamental plants is being shown by Victory gardeners this year. Many are planting borders and backgrounds of flowers to set off their attractive rows of garden vegetables.

Where screen and background planting is desired quickly and at small expense, there are annual plants which can produce both.

Largest of all is the castor bean. From one small bean can be grown a beautiful plant eight feet tall and as much in diameter. The leaves are large, and of a bronze or maroon tone. The Zanzibar strain will produce plants twelve feet tall, in suitable locations with plenty of water and rich soil.

Great bushes four to six feet tall are grown by the Tithonia, sometimes called the Golden Flower of the Incas, and this is a flowering plant, bearing 2-inch orange flowers resembling a single zinnia.

The fine leaved fire plant Kochia trichophylla, makes a miniature tree of bright yellow green leaves which in late summer turn to crimson.

It is even handsomer in its green than in its red form and can be pruned to make a low hedge. The coleus, the old-fashioned plant our grandmothers delighted to grow in the house, can be raised from seed easily outdoors in a variety of brilliant coloring.

In hot, sunny locations, Amaranthus tricolor, often called Joseph's coat of many colors, will attain its finest coloring. The inner foliage is of blackest bronze, tipped with green, the outer bright scarlet and gold.

Heavy-leaved plants should be relieved by those of finer character in the border. Some of the ornamental grasses easily raised from seed are useful for this purpose and are often seen associated with canna, castor beans, or the elephant-ear caladium.

The ornamental grasses, both annual and perennial, give excellent decorative effects. The pennisetums, pampas grass (erianthus) and eulalia with green and white leaves are all attractive.

R. C. Paterson Ends Leave

in sightseeing in Scotland, Ireland and Wales. He received the Good Conduct Medal during his assignment there.

A graduate of Sequoia High School, he attended San Jose State while awaiting his call to the medical corps in which he volunteered. Paterson was a Redwood City ambulance driver. He received a year's hospital training before going overseas.

Believed Dead, R.C. Youth Heads Home

Believed killed in the Java Sea on Feb. 27, 1942, Robert J. Sheehan of Redwood City is on his way home from a Japanese prison camp, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sheehan of 632 Acacia Ln., were informed Monday.

Sheehan, whose destroyer, the USS Pope, was sunk by the enemy gun fire in the Battle of the Java Sea, has been reported missing since the ship was destroyed. The Sheehan family formerly lived in Burlingame at 29 Bloomfield Rd. His boyhood chum, Alfred Disney of Burlingame is also on his way home, having been reported missing since the Pope was sunk. Disney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Disney of 1100 Peninsula Ave.

Both men are 25 and they entered the navy before the outbreak of war. Their parents received official telegrams from the War Department this weekend and also personal cablegrams from the men.

Following the sinking of the Pope, months elapsed before indirect word was heard from either of the men. The navy officially listed them as dead.

The Sheehan family was told that a Japanese broadcasting station reported their son was dead. Later both families received letters from people in many sections of the United States who reported hearing a shortwave broadcast from Japan listing the two as prisoners in a Tokyo camp.

Sheehan was one of the first casualties of war listed from the Peninsula.

The men reported they were in good health and fine spirits in their messages to their families. "It was so wonderful to hear from Bob," his sister, Patricia Sheehan,

Redwood City May Lose Main Offices

Construction of a county public health center in the central county area, and removal of the central offices of the County Health Department from Redwood City Tuesday was recommended by the County Grand Jury's public health and welfare committee.

In the report on Community Hospital and the present public health clinics, the jury committee recommended construction of the public health center in which all health department activities would be centralized, and suggested that it might be located near Community Hospital in San Mateo. The jury report also recommended construction of an emergency hospital in the North County and of district clinics in the northern, southern and coastsides areas of the county.

The report condemned the present clinic in Colma, which serves the entire north county and part of the coastsides, as "most inadequate and unsatisfactory."

Rendering a comparatively favorable report on Community Hospital, the jury recommended that the isolation ward for patients suffering from communicable diseases and the carpenter shops be removed from the main building, and that a laundry be constructed at the hospital.

The public health centers in the Three Cities area, whose construction the jury today recommended, would house the offices of the Director of Public Health and other administrative officials of the health department, as well as containing private offices for social service workers, and laboratories, clinics, and offices for public health nursing, epidemiology, vital statistics and sanitation.

Emergency hospital facilities in the north county are "urgently needed," the committee found.

The present clinic in Colma houses, in a building 19 x 55 ft., a health clinic, sanitary inspection offices, a visiting nurses office, and offices of the county agricultural department, all "cramped and crowded," the jury committee found.

The clinic serves Daly City, Colma, South San Francisco, San Bruno, Lomita Park, Brisbane, Pedro Valley, and part of the coast area — or a population of roughly 40,000 persons with "most inadequate" facilities according to the jury's report.

In addition to a north county emergency hospital, the county should build health centers in the north and south county, and a "small office" on the coastsides, to house district clinics, district sanatoriums, and offices for part time social service workers.

The present public health clinic is located in Community Hospital.

M. R. Regalado Gets Release From Service

Lt. Mario R. Regalado was released from the service at Tampa, Fla., on Sept. 22, the army air force pilot is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francisco C. Regalado of 303 Buckeye St.

Enlisting in the army in February, 1943, Regalado began his basic training in the air force in the Spring of 1944. He trained at Leavenworth and received his wings and commission as a flight officer in June, 1944, at Pease, Tex.

He was sent overseas with the 46th Bomb Group in January of this year where he remained until July. Regalado holds the Air Medal with three clusters. A graduate of Sequoia High School with the class of '41, he attended San Jose State College until 1943 where he was a member of the varsity baseball team.

"Here all public health services must be rendered to a majority of residents in the county in offices entirely too small for such purposes," the jury reported, "considering especially the fact that the population of the county has greatly increased and will continue to increase."

The jury found that Community Hospital and its surrounding grounds, "appear to have been kept in good condition," but criticized the lack of emergency facilities. Emergency cases at present are treated in the general surgical rooms.

The ward for psychopathic and alcoholic patients should be soundproofed, to prevent disturbing other patients, the committee recommended.

Patients also are disturbed by the carpenter shop, located in the main building, according to the report.

The jury suggested that the county build a laundry which could do all washing for Community Hospital, the County Relief Home and Canyon Sanatorium. At present Community Hospital has no laundry, and laundry is done by a private firm at a monthly cost of $1500.

As a final recommendation, the jury suggested that the agreement by which Mills Memorial Hospital rents the pavilion behind Community Hospital for use as a Mills Annex, "be terminated whenever the necessity arises to provide for county patients, in the opinion of the county director of public health."

The pavilion might be used for an isolation ward for Community Hospital, the jury suggested.

The recommendations put forward by the jury today for moving of the center of health department activities from Redwood City to the Three Cities and building subsidiary clinics in the north and south areas of the county, are basically those made earlier this year by County Health Director Charles C. Gans.

News of Commuters

By LOCOMOTIVE BILL
Romance of commuting—a short history (continued).

All was in readiness on that opening day in January, 1864, to start the first train ever to travel down the Peninsula from San Francisco to San Jose. The long train was crowded with celebrities including some civilians and many of the San Francisco supervisors who refused to ride in the cattle cars making up most of the train. The usual bottle of champagne was bounced against the engine, and off the train went for San Jose.

Not too many obstacles were encountered along the way although the train hit a horse and it was rather difficult limbing those San Bruno grades, the original route of Peninsula trains. As the train drew into the San Jose depot, it was greeted by a 36-gun salute of welcome under the auspices of the California Guard.

All the citizens of San Jose and way points were there, and the celebration was really something. The politicians made speeches and when they got tired, the music took over. Champagne flowed and everybody had fun. Finally in the early evening the weary celebrants returned to San Francisco. Shortly after this maiden voyage commuting began in earnest and two trains were running daily, leaving San Francisco at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. and from San Jose at 7:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. The average passenger load each day was 700.

As time went on, it became necessary to put on another train so the first freight train was added, which included a passenger coach. Speed was picking up and the engineer was able to make the trip from San Francisco to San Jose in three and one-half hours. The fare was reduced from the $22 charged in 1850 to the trifling sum of $2.50, no reduction for commuter tickets being allowed. Time marched on and more excursion parties were held—the gens in those days really were party hounds. New engines were purchased by our Scotch friend, Pete Donahue, and the time between San Francisco and San Jose was gradually reduced. (To be continued.)

of the Anglo-California National Bank of San Francisco, announces his entrance into the general insurance brokerage business with offices in the Mills Building in San Francisco. Lots of luck, Paul. Commuters and their wives attending the Kickoff dinner for the War Chest were Commuter Club Pres. Clarence Brizee, Stanley Perkins, Bert Conroy, Chester Armstrong and Paul McCarthy. John Clarke appointed to handle War Chest drive for the Commuters. Charles Malinoski reported recovering from recent operation. Commuters plan dinner for victorious Kiwanis softball club—the boys are at present saving their nickels and dimes as the Kiwanians go free. "Serves the Commuters right for losing the game, says Loco. Bill Kelly's fox terrier wins prize at recent Dibble Hospital dog show—best dog in show, opposite sex.

All Commuters are asked to give at least one-half their War Chest donation to the Redwood City chest. There are many local agencies benefitting and deserving of your help. Then, too, we would like to see Redwood City go over the top.

Shooting the breeze: Did you know that the Joe McClellans speak and write five different languages. That it has been announced commuters may now expect courtesy from employees on San Francisco street cars and that you can expect the conductor to say yes sir, and no sir, and even offer to help you on and off the street car. That commuters employed in the vicinity of Ninth and Market Sts. may ride a bus on Ninth St. which now continues on to the Southern Pacific depot.

The Southern Pacific Co. can take a bow for at least being considerate enough to tell commuters the reason for running one and two cars short during the past week. Many commuters had to stand, and on Sept. 26, the Southern Pacific Co. printed 15,000 cards explaining the reason. Coaches had to be borrowed to carry returning service men. The railway further explains that they are making a strenuous effort to get additional coaches from other railroads.

Corporal Cecil R. Small Wins Discharge From Engineer Unit

Cpl. Cecil R. Small of Redwood City, member of the 3rd Engineer Combat Battalion (Pacific Engineers), attached to this Victory Division, has returned to the United States under the War Department's new policy of discharging men 38 and older, the army reported today.

Corporal Small's battalion has seen 33 years continuous overseas service and during this war participated in campaigns in New Guinea, the initial landings on Leyte, Luzon, Mindoro and the last campaign of the war here on Mindanao. Corporal Small was with the division when it slashed across the island against fanatical Japanese resistance, a distance of 150 miles, in 17 days. He came under frequent sniper, mortar and enemy small arms fire.

He leaves a division which has won the respect of troops throughout the Pacific, a division which was at Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941, a regular army outfit whose peacetime home is in Hawaii.

Dibble Dental Chief Gets Legion Award

Col. William D. White, present dental chief of Dibble General Hospital, was awarded the Legion of Merit recently for his outstanding technical job overseas, that of outfitting the African and European theaters with much-needed dental equipment, Dibble reported Wednesday.

Among the innovations introduced under Colonel White's supervision were mobile laboratories and mobile two-chair dental clinics, completely equipped portable units placed on buses. Carrying their own power plant, these units moved from place

Dibble Hospital Gets Meritorious Award

Dibble General Hospital was formally awarded the Meritorious Service Unit plaque by the Ninth Service Command Tuesday for superior performance of duty.

Col. Paul H. Streit, commanding officer, accepted the award in the name of the Dibble detachment. All military personnel assigned to the hospital are authorized to wear the Meritorious Service Unit insignia on their lower right sleeve.

Sequoia Hoop Quints Play Two Galileo Teams Friday

Sequoia High School's 110 and 120 class basketball squads take the floor in boys' gymnasium at the school again tomorrow night in their fourth "double header" of the season against two squads from Galileo High School of San Francisco, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Ray Dimick hopes his boys will repeat their earlier performances of the season, and finish the evening with two more victories under their belts. Galileo, however, he reminded, were city champions last year in both 110 and 120 squad divisions.

Monday afternoon, the local basketball teams will journey to San Francisco to meet Balboa High School teams at that school's gym.

Admission to tomorrow night's games is 15 cents for student body card holders, and 35 cents for general admission, Dimick said.

"Taboo," meaning forbidden, is a Polynesian term for which equivalents can be quoted from most savage vocabularies.
